ERM Symposium

Monday, April 12, 9:00 am - 5:00 pm Eastern

The ERM Symposium is open to any nonprofit risk leader, champion, or NRMC Affiliate. This brand-new educational event is designed for experienced risk leaders who are responsible for building, evolving or supporting ERM programs or functions in charitable, scientific, educational, humanitarian, health and philanthropic organizations as well as professional associations.

The day-long Symposium will include workshops as well as small cohort discussion groups. Topics that will be covered during the ERM Symposium include:

- A guided tour of ERM in the nonprofit sector
- How to build ERM tools and frameworks
- Overcoming internal resistance to ERM
- Syncing ERM to your nonprofit's values
- And more!

The ERM Symposium will be a hybrid event held online and also at Convene at 1201 Wilson Boulevard in Arlington, VA. Convene is a modern conference center known as an "event sanctuary in the sky." Learn more about Convene's operating and safety protocols here.
