

Key Questions: Evaluating CEO Performance

Resource Type: Articles

Topic: HR Risk and Employment Practices

Attorney Eileen Morgan Johnson has developed a list of key questions for the Board and the CEO that can be helpful in a CEO performance review process.

Questions for the Board

- Did the CEO meet the goals that were agreed on between the board and the CEO at the beginning of the year?
- In what ways did the CEO excel this past year?
- In what areas can the CEO improve next year?
- Did the CEO move the organization forward in terms of mission, resources, public attention, and other identified objectives?
- Has the organization made progress overall compared to the prior year?
- If the organization has not progressed as expected, were any factors involved that were beyond the CEO's control?
- How are the relationships between the full board and the CEO and between the executive committee and the CEO?
- Do the board and the CEO balance their responsibilities with the board providing leadership and the CEO providing management?
- Does the board support the CEO?
- Is the CEO's compensation reasonable when compared to that of other executives in the geographic area with similar duties, staff sizes, budgets, years of experience, education, etc.?

Questions for the Nonprofit CEO

- Did you meet your stated goals for the year? If not, why not?
- What were your achievements this year?
