

ANNOUNCING the 2025 RLCP Cohort

Liz Bautista, Divisional AVP, Regional Manager
Great American Specialty Human Services

As Divisional AVP at GAIG, Liz leads teams supporting nonprofit organizations and human services providers. Her team is dedicated to protecting mission-driven organizations—those that serve communities, support vulnerable populations, and drive social impact. She is proud of GAIG's innovative insurance and risk management solutions that address the unique exposures faced by nonprofits and human services agencies. Liz is known for building strong client relationships and mentoring emerging leaders. Whether navigating complex underwriting scenarios or guiding strategic partnerships, Liz champions the values of trust, collaboration, and accountability. Liz earned her Bachelor's degree from the University of Illinois Chicago.

Elise Edwards, Chief of Staff and Operations
Global Methane Hub

Elise Edwards serves as the Chief of Staff and Operations for the Global Methane Hub, a philanthropic initiative focused on reducing methane emissions across energy, agriculture, and waste sectors. Based in Santiago, Chile, she builds the systems, processes, and culture to translate vision and strategy into reality while managing day-to-day operations in a complex, global environment. She brings over 15 years of experience in international affairs and nonprofit leadership, including the U.S. Foreign Service. Elise holds a Master's degree in Organizational Leadership from Gonzaga University and a Bachelor's degree in French and International Studies from Hope College.

Lisa Falkenberg, Director of Clinical Services
Kendal at Home

Lisa is a passionate and results-driven healthcare leader with a deep commitment to improving the lives of aging populations. Lisa is the new Director of Clinical Services for Kendal at Home, a nonprofit supporting older adults in aging-in-place wherever they call home. She brings an extensive background in rehabilitation services, healthcare operations, and strategic senior care initiatives. Throughout her career, Lisa has led transformative initiatives across multiple healthcare systems, overseeing inpatient and outpatient services across hospitals and off-site practices. Lisa earned her Master's degree from the University of North Carolina Chapel Hill and her undergraduate degree from Washington University School of Medicine in St. Louis.

Heidi Hamilton, General Counsel & Chief Compliance Officer
Urban Resource Institute

Heidi L. Hamilton is General Counsel and Chief Compliance Officer for Urban Resource Institute, a nonprofit providing housing and support for the unhoused and survivors of intimate partner abuse. Her office oversees in-house corporate affairs, board governance, policy & compliance initiatives, enterprise risk management, insurance, litigation, employment law & property management law issues. She serves on the board of Calvin Hill Day Care, Boundless Literacy, Inc., TruFund Financial Services and is Chair of the Governance Committee of Barbershop Books. Heidi earned a JD from the University of California, Berkeley School of Law and a Bachelor of Arts degree in Political Science from Wellesley College.

Ron Lund, Chief Operating Officer
Project NOW

Ron Lund is the Chief Operating Officer for Project NOW, a community action agency focused on assisting low-income families. Ron joined Project NOW in 2010. Ron ensures the organization delivers essential services to those in need. His dedication to service began with the U.S. Marine Corps, where he served honorably from 1997 to 2002, including a return to active duty for Operation Enduring Freedom. Following his military career, he transitioned to the Department of Homeland Security, playing a critical role in airport security federalization post-9/11 across major U.S. cities. Ron also serves as Board President for the Northwestern Illinois Continuum of Care.

Jennifer Marshall, General Counsel
American Rivers

Jennifer is General Counsel at American Rivers, a national conservation organization working to make every river clean and healthy for people and wildlife. She advises the Board of Directors, President, executive leadership team, and other staff on a broad range of legal issues. Jennifer collaborates with the executive team to reduce liability risk by developing effective internal policies and procedures and managing all transactional agreements. She coordinates with outside counsel to address specialty legal issues. Jennifer earned a B.A. from the University of Colorado and JD from the University of Maryland Law School with a concentration in environmental law.

Kaia Roberts, Director of Risk & Compliance
YMCA of the North

Kaia Roberts serves as Director of Risk & Compliance at YMCA of the North, where she leads enterprise-wide risk management and compliance strategies across a broad portfolio of community impact, wellbeing, and youth development programs throughout eastern MN and western WI. Kaia is passionate about fostering compassionate, approachable, and effective risk-aware cultures in a complex nonprofit context. Kaia has successfully redesigned safety frameworks, developed comprehensive compliance training programs, and spearheaded incident response initiatives that enhance organizational resilience. She earned a Master of Studies in Law in Organizational Ethics & Compliance degree from the University of St Thomas.

Lindsay Selvig, Chief Financial Officer
Girl Scouts River Valleys

Lindsay Selvig is the Chief Financial Officer of Girl Scouts of Minnesota and Wisconsin River Valleys. A long-standing leader within the organization, she is responsible for guiding fiscal strategy, long-range planning, retail operations, and information services. Lindsay is committed to advancing youth development through values-driven decision-making rooted in equity and inclusion. She is especially passionate about growing leadership skills among female-identified youth and ensuring all young people have opportunities to thrive. Lindsay earned an undergraduate degree from Kalamazoo College and has completed master's level coursework at the University of Minnesota.